

Robb Report

9 Hotel Suites with Unbelievable Views of World-Famous Landmarks

These aren't just rooms with a view. These are rooms with the view.

Becca Hensley / September 28, 2017

There are rooms with a view—and there are rooms with the view. We're partial to the latter. After all, what could be better than falling asleep to the twinkling lights of the Eiffel Tower or waking up to a panoramic view of the Taj Mahal? Of course, we love a good visit to a landmark attraction, but there's something special—and more intimate—about enjoying the sights and sounds from your private terrace, your bed, or even your bathtub. From Paris to New York, from Athens to Berlin, these hotel suites come with unbelievable views of some of the world's most famous landmarks.

The Silo

«PREV

7 OF 9

NEXT»

#7

The Silo

The Silo
Photo: Courtesy The Silo

Penthouse Study

#7

The Silo

The Silo
Photo: Courtesy The Silo

Deluxe Superior Bathroom

#7

The Silo

The Silo
Photo: Courtesy The Silo

Bedroom View

Texture, color, whimsy, and a love for the arts are present in all of South African hotelier Liz Biden's properties. But the Silo—Cape Town's newest hotel occupying the top floors of the Zeitz Museum of Contemporary Art Africa—bears unfettered witness to one of sub-Saharan's most magnificent natural wonders: the regal Table Mountain. Enjoy the views from the penthouse's 258-square-foot balcony and sculptural floor-to-ceiling windows.

Link to story: <http://robbreport.com/travel/hotels/slideshow/9-hotel-suites-with-unbelievable-views-of-world-famous-landmarks/the-silo-2/>